The Venue

When it comes to planning the perfect business event the combination of experienced event organisers, outstanding venue facilities, delicious food and attention to every small detail is critical to its success. Cally Palace has an edge as a business and conference venue. Our stylish surroundings, professional yet relaxed atmosphere and impeccable service are the perfect mix to ensure that your event goes smoothly.

Cally Palace, is located on the outskirts of the pretty village of Gatehouse of Fleet on the Solway coast, is set in over 150 acres of grounds and was originally an 18th century country mansion, but is now a wonderful hotel ideally located in between Dumfries and Stranraer.

Our Space

Whatever your requirements our conference and break-out rooms are capable of being adapted to suit your needs precisely and provide the space, flexibility and bespoke services you require. We can host conferences, meetings, seminars, corporate hospitality events, training and team building events, as well as board meetings. Our team will suggest the best options for you and help you put together a meeting and conference package that suits your needs exactly, giving you the peace of mind that lets you get down to business.
