Team-building

We can organise a wide range of team-building activities on site, including stunning falconry demonstrations.

Or for a really relaxed and informative activity we can organise a Sunset Safari at our neighbouring venue Marwell Wildlife, where you can get up close to many species of animal and be guided by knowledgeable zoo keepers.

We can also arrange team-building activities at the nearby Marwell Activity Centre, a 65-acre site offering everything from clay-pigeon shooting through to an aerial adventure course.

Our rooms

Oakwood

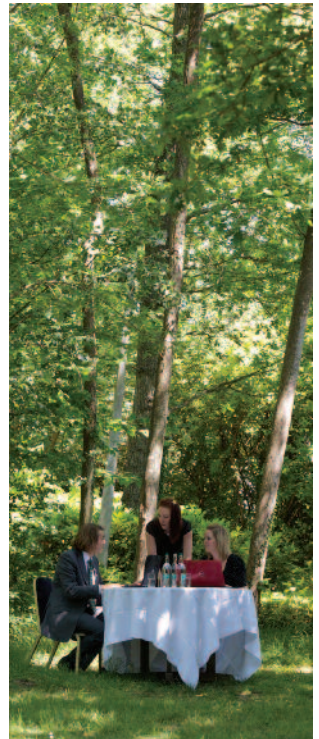

With generous amounts of natural daylight and state-of-the-art equipment, Oakwood is the ideal environment for larger meetings or presentations. It has direct access to the patio and the spacious woodland area, making the room popular for away-days with a difference. This room can also be divided into two smaller rooms, for those occasions when you need adjacent, but partitioned rooms. The private bar area can be curtained off if not required.

Maplethorpe

Contemporary-styled Maplethorpe has its own entrance, toilets and bar area (which can be partitioned off when not required), so is perfect for private meetings. It also has direct access on to the patio and woodland area making this the ideal suite when you want somewhere to relax during meeting breaks, or for an event with a barbecue lunch, for example.

Capacity150

All of our meeting rooms have free wireless internet access. We also have the latest state-of-the-art equipment available.

Ashstead and Birchgrove

These adjacent, first-floor rooms are identical, and both have a superb view of the surrounding woodland. The rooms are particularly popular for training courses and examinations. As well as being fully equipped and air-conditioned they offer lots of natural daylight and a spacious and comfortable working environment.

Hazeldene

This is the ideal room to hold interviews, private board meetings or use as a break-out room from Ashstead and Birchgrove. Hazeldene benefits from air-conditioning and an abundance of natural daylight. It also offers a superb view of the beautiful surrounding woodland.
