The Venue

Tulloch Castle Hotel is steeped in a deep and diverse history and is situated overlooking the beautiful market town of Dingwall. With the hotels fantastic panoramic views of The Cromarty Firth towards the Black Isle and Strathpeffer, it is the perfect location for any event.

The Castle was probably built by the Norsemen, but all that remains of the original buildings are the south-west corner and the tower. It was first called Tulloch in 1507 from the Gaelic word “Tuich,” which means “hillock.”

No other part of the Highlands has a more romantic history in respect of clan feuds and forays, as the land surrounding Tulloch Castle and the town of Dingwall.

Please relax and enjoy the splendour of the hotel, whilst we take you through your Wedding Journey.
