

THE LUGGER HOTEL

Surrounded by cliffs and headlands which form an idyllic part of the Cornish Coastal Footpath, Portloe possesses an unrivalled beauty and enduring timelessness.

The Lugger Hotel - Cornwall's only AA-rated Five Star Inn, and selected by the Sunday Times as the 'Best Seaside Hotel' - sits right on the water's edge in the centre of this delightful village. Each of the 22 bedrooms is beautifully decorated and has deluxe showers and fine linens.

Additionally, a range of three private cottages are available for guests desiring the utmost seclusion, space and freedom. In particular, the three-bedroom Cobb Cottage features self-catering facilities, a generous lounge, as well as breathtaking panoramic views.

There is also a two AA Rosette restaurant on site, where guests can enjoy the best of local produce and cuisine. Many of England's most popular attractions - such as the Eden Project, the Lost Gardens of Heligan and the Maritime Museum of Falmouth - are also within easy striking distance.
